Mayor Auburn called the Public Hearing to order before the Common Council and the citizens of the City of Port Orford at 7:00 p.m., October 17, 2005. The purpose of this public hearing was to discuss the Community Block Grant to build the new library.

Mayor Auburn invited Librarian Tobe Porter to come forward to answer any questions of the audience. Tobe informed the audience that the City is applying for a $500,000 Community Block Grant on behalf of the Library which money will be used to build the new library. Tobe explained the hearing tonight was to find out if anyone has anything to say regarding the grant. No one asked to speak.

Mayor Auburn then asked if there were any public comments regarding the City applying for the Block Grant on behalf of the library. There were no comments or questions, and the Mayor closed the Public Hearing at 7:05 p.m.. There ensued a round of applause from the audience.
