3.08.010 Definitions.

For the purpose of this chapter, the following words shall mean:

“Accrual accounting” means a system of accounting in which the operator enters the rent due from a transient into the record when the rent is earned, whether or not it is paid.

“Cash accounting” means a system of accounting in which the operator does not enter the rent due from a transient into the record until the rent is paid.

“City area beautification” means the enhancement and beautification of the city within the city’s limits, but excluding acquisition, maintenance and/or repairs of city infrastructure with the exception of facilities used by tourists. (Ord. 2003-06 § 01, 2003)

“City area tourism development” means 1) the expenditure of funds in areas outside of the City limits for the purpose of advertising and promoting areas within the city of Port Orford and surrounding areas and 2) advertising and support of activities within the city limits which draw tourists to the area. (Ord. 2003-06 § 01, 2003)

“Collection reimbursement charge” means the amount a transient lodging provider may retain as reimbursement for the costs incurred by the provider in collecting and reporting a transient lodging tax and in maintaining transient lodging tax records.

“Conference center” means a facility that:

- a. Is owned or partially owned by a unit of local government, a governmental agency or a nonprofit organization; and
- b. Meets the current membership criteria of the International Association of Conference Centers.

“Convention center” means a new or improved facility that:

- a. Is capable of attracting and accommodating conventions and trade shows from international, national and regional markets requiring exhibition space, ballroom space, meeting rooms and any other associated space, including but not limited to banquet facilities, loading areas and lobby and registration areas;
- b. Has a total meeting room and ballroom space between one-third and one-half of the total size of the center’s exhibition space;
- c. Generates a majority of its business income from tourists;
- d. Has a room-block relationship with the local lodging industry; and
- e. Is owned by a unit of local government, a governmental agency or a nonprofit organization.

“Local transient lodging tax” means tax imposed by a unit of local government on the sale service or furnishing of transient lodging.

“State transient lodging tax” means tax imposed by a unit of local government under ORS 320.205.

“Tourism” means economic activity resulting from tourists.

“Tourism promotion” means any of the following activities:

- a. Advertising, publicizing or distributing information for the purpose of attracting and welcoming tourists;
- b. Conducting strategic planning and research necessary to stimulate future tourism development;
- c. Operating tourism promotion agencies; and
- d. Marketing special events and festivals designed to attract tourists.

“Tourism promotion agency” includes:

- a. An incorporated nonprofit organization or governmental unit that is responsible for the tourism promotion of a destination on a year-round basis.
- b. A nonprofit entity that manages tourism-related economic development plans, programs and projects.
- c. A regional or statewide association that represents entities that rely on tourism-related business for more than 50 percent of their total income.

“Tourism-related facility”:

- a. Means a conference center, convention center or visitor information center; and
- b. Means other improved real property that has a useful life of 10 or more years and has a substantial purpose of supporting tourism or accommodating tourist activities.

“Tourist” means a person who, for business, pleasure, recreation or participation in events related to arts, heritage or culture, travels from the community in which that person is a resident to a different community that is separate, distinct from and unrelated to the person’s community of residence, and that trip:

- a. Requires the person to travel more than 50 miles from the community of residence; or

- b. Includes an overnight stay.

“Transient” means an individual who occupies or is entitled to occupy space in transient lodging for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days or less, counting portions of days as full days. The day a transient checks out of a hotel shall not be included in determining the thirty (30) day period if the transient is not charged rent for that day. A person occupying space in transient lodging shall be considered a transient until a period of thirty-one (31) days has expired unless there is agreement in writing between the operator and the occupant providing for a longer period of occupancy or the tenant actually extends occupancy more than thirty (30) consecutive days. A person who pays for lodging on a monthly basis, regardless of the number of days in the month, shall not be considered a transient. (Ord. 96-16 § 1, 1996; Ord. 212-90B § 1, 1990)

“Transient lodging” means:

- a. Hotel, motel and inn dwelling units that are used for temporary overnight human occupancy;
- b. Spaces used for parking recreational vehicles or erecting tents during periods of human occupancy; or
- c. Houses, cabins, condominiums, apartment units or other dwelling units, or portions of any of these dwelling units that are used for temporary human occupancy.

“Unit of local government” has the meaning given that term in ORS 190.003.

“Visitor information center” means a building, or a portion of a building, the main purpose of which is to distribute or disseminate information to tourists.

3.08.020 Tax imposed.

A transient shall pay a tax in the amount of seven percent of the rest charged for the privilege of occupancy in a hotel in the city. The tax constitutes a debt owed by the transient to the city, and the debt is extinguished only when the tax is remitted by the operator to the city. The transient shall pay the tax to the operator at the time the rent is paid. The operator shall enter the tax into the record when rent is collected if the operator keeps records on the accrual accounting basis. If the rent is paid in installments, a proportionate share of the tax shall be paid by the transient to the operator with each installment. In all cases, rent paid or charged for occupancy shall exclude the sale of goods, services or commodities. All transient funds shall be held in trust by the operator on behalf of the transient until remitted to the city. (Ord. 96-16 § 3, 1996; Ord. 212-90B § 2, 1990)

3.08.030 Rules for collection of tax by operator.

A. Every operator renting space for lodging or sleeping shall collect a tax from the occupant. The tax collected or accrued constitutes a debt owed by the operator to the city.

B. In cases of credit or deferred payment of rent, the payment of tax to the operator may be deferred until the rent is paid, and the operator shall not be liable for the tax until credits are paid or deferred payments are made.

C. the City Administrator shall enforce this chapter and may adopt rules and regulations necessary for enforcement with approval of City Council.

D. For rent collected on portions of a dollar, fractions of a penny of tax shall not be remitted. (Ord. 212-90B § 3, 1990) (Ord.2012-01 § 030, 2012)

3.08.040 Operator’s duties.

An operator shall collect the tax when rent is collected from the transient. The amount of tax shall be stated separately in the operator’s records and on the receipt given by the operator. An operator shall not advertise that the tax will not be added to the rent , that a portion of it will be assumed or absorbed by the operator, or that a portion will be refunded, except in the manner provided by this chapter. (Ord. 212-90B § 4, 1990)

3.08.050 Exemptions.

The tax shall not be imposed on:

A. An occupant staying more than thirty (30) consecutive days.

B. Any occupant of a hospital room medical clinic, convalescent home, or home for the aged, disabled or otherwise infirm;

C. Any occupant whose rent is paid as charitable assistance from any recognized nonprofit organization such as a church or Common Good;

D. Any recreational vehicle park. (Repealed: Ord. 2004-03 § 050, 2004);

E. Any government employee on official government business who presents a hotel/motel tax exemption certificate at the time of their current occupancy. (Ord. 96-16 § 4, 1996; Ord 212-90B § 5, 1990)

3.08.060 Operator’s registration form.

A. An operator of a hotel shall register with the tax administrator, on a form provided by the administrator, within fifteen (15) days after beginning business or within thirty (30) calendar days after passage of the ordinance codified in this chapter.

- B. The registration shall include:
1. The name under which the operator transacts or intends to transact business;
  2. The location of the hotel;
  3. Any other information the tax administrator may require to facilitate collection of the tax;
  4. The signature of the operator.
- C. Failure to register does not relieve the operator from collecting the tax or a person from paying the tax. (Ord. 212-90B ' 6, 1990)

3.08.070 Certificate of authority.

- A. The tax administrator shall issue a certificate of authority to the registrant within ten days after registration.
- B. Certificates are non-assignable and nontransferable and shall be surrendered immediately to the tax administrator on cessation of business at the location named or when the business is sold or transferred.
- C. Each certificate shall state the place of business to which it applies and shall be prominently displayed.
- D. the certificate shall state:
1. The name of the operator;
  2. The address of the hotel;
  3. The date when the certificate was issued;
  4. This Transient Occupancy Registration Certificate signifies that the person named on the certificate has fulfilled the requirements of the Transient Room Tax Ordinance of the City of Port Orford by registering with the tax administrator for the purpose of collecting the room tax imposed by the City of Port Orford and remitting the tax to the tax administrator. (Ord. 212-90B § 7, 1990)

3.08.080 Collections, returns and payments.

- A. The taxes collected by an operator are payable to the tax administrator on a quarterly basis on the fifteenth day of the following month for the preceding three months and are delinquent on the last day of the month in which they are due. The initial return may be for less than the three months preceding the due date. The quarters are:

First quarter	January, February, March
Second quarter	April, May, June
Third quarter	July, August, September
Fourth quarter	October, November, December

B. a return showing tax collections for the preceding quarter shall be filed with the tax administrator, in a form prescribed by the tax administrator, before the sixteenth day of the month following each collection quarter.

C. 1. The operator shall withhold five percent of the tax to cover the expense of collecting and remitting the tax.

2. In instances where credit is extended to the transient for charges for rental through the use of a credit card or other similar transaction whereby the amount paid to the operator is discounted by contract between the operator and the issuer of the credit card, the amount of such discount may be excluded from the definition of "rent" and no tax shall be imposed on the amount so discounted.

D. Returns shall show the amount of the tax collected or due for the related period. The tax administrator may require returns to show the total rentals on which the tax was collected or is due, gross receipts of the operator for the period, a detailed explanation of any discrepancy between the amounts, and the amount of rentals exempt.

E. The operator shall deliver the return and the tax due to the tax administrator's office. If the return is mailed, the postmark shall be considered the date of delivery for determining delinquencies.

F. For good cause, the tax administrator may extend the time for filing a return or paying the tax for not more than one month. Further extensions may be granted only by the common council of the city of Port Orford.

G. the tax administrator may require returns and payments of the taxes for other than quarterly periods in individual cases to insure payment or to facilitate collection by the city. (Ord. 212-90B § 8,1990)

3.08.090 Delinquency penalties.

A. An operator who has not been granted an extension of time for remittance of tax due and who fails to remit the tax prior to delinquency shall pay penalty of ten percent of the tax due in addition to the tax.

B. An operator who has not been granted an extension of time for remittance of tax due and who fails to pay a delinquent remittance before the expiration of thirty-one (31) days following the date on which the remittance became delinquent shall pay a second delinquency penalty of fifteen (15) percent of the tax due, the amount of the tax due and the ten percent penalty first imposed.

C. if the tax administrator determines that nonpayment of a remittance is due to fraud or intent to evade the tax, a penalty of twenty-five (25) percent of the tax shall be added to the penalties stated in subsections A and B of this section.

D. In addition to the penalties imposed by this section, an operator who fails to remit the required tax shall pay interest at the rate of 0.5 percent per month, on the tax due, exclusive of penalties, from the date on which the tax first became delinquent until paid.

E. each penalty imposed and the interest accrued under the provisions of this section shall be merged and become part of the tax required to be paid.

F. An operator who fails to remit the tax within the required time may petition the common council of the city of Port Orford for waiver and refund of the penalty or a portion of it. The common council of the city of Port Orford may, if good cause is shown, direct a refund of the penalty or a portion of it. (Ord. 212-90B § 9, 1990)

3.08.100 Deficiency determination.

A. In making a determination that the returns are incorrect, the tax administrator may determine the amount required to be paid on the basis of the facts contained in the return or on the basis of any other information.

B. Deficiency determination may be made on the amount due for one or more than one period. The determined amount shall be payable immediately on service of notice, after which the determined amount is delinquent. Penalties on deficiencies shall be applied as provided in Section 3.08.090.

C. In making a determination, the tax administrator may offset overpayments that have been made against a deficiency for a subsequent period or against penalties and interest on the deficiency. The interest on the deficiency shall be computed as provided in Section 3.08.090. (Ord. 212-90B § 10, 1990)

3.08.110 Redemption petition

A determination becomes payable immediately on receipt of notice and becomes final within ten days after the tax administrator has given notice. However, the operator may petition for redemption and refund by filing a petition before the determination becomes final. (Ord. 212-90B § 11, 1990)

3.08.120 Fraud-Refusal to Collect - Evasion.

A. if an operator fails or refuses to collect the tax, make the report, or remit the tax, or makes a fraudulent return or otherwise willfully attempts to evade the tax payment, the tax administrator shall obtain facts and information on which to base an estimate of the tax due. After determining the tax due and the interest and penalties, the tax administrator shall give notice of the amount due.

B. Determination and notice shall be made and mailed within three years after discovery of fraud, intent to evade, failure or refusal to collect the taxes, or failure to file a return. The determination becomes payable immediately on receipt notice and becomes final ten days after the tax administrator has given notice.

C. The operator may petition for redemption and refund if the petition is filed before the determination becomes final. (Ord. 212-90B §12, 1990)

3.08.130 Notice of determination.

A. The tax administrator shall give the operator a written notice of determination. If notice is mailed it shall be addressed to the operator at the address that appears on the records of the tax administrator, and service is complete when the notice is deposited in the post office.

B. Except in the case of fraud or intent to evade the tax, a deficiency determination shall be made and notice mailed within three years after the last days of the month following the close of the quarterly period for which the determination has been made or within three years after the return is filed, whichever is later.(Ord. 212-90B § 13, 1990)

3.08.140 Operator delay.

If the tax administrator believes that collection of the tax will be jeopardized by delay, or if a determination will be jeopardized by delay, the tax administrator shall determine the tax to be collected and note facts concerning the delay on the determination. The determined amount is payable immediately on service of notice. After payment has been made, the operator may petition for redemption and refund of the determination if the petition is filed within ten days from the date of service of notice by the tax administrator. (Ord. 212-90B § 14, 1990)

3.08.150 Redetermination.

A. the common council of the city of Port Orford is designated as a committee to hear and determine appeals of order or decisions of the tax administrator, upon petition for redetermination of tax or other pertinent matters for which the tax administrator is herein designated or directed to perform. The city council, in such capacity, shall act as a committee to hear and determine such orders or decisions or dismiss the appeals therefrom, as may be just, and shall prescribe such forms, rules and regulations relating to appeals as it may deem necessary.

B. An operator against whom a determination is made under Section 3.08.100, or person directly interested, may petition the common council of the city of Port Orford for a redetermination, redemption and refund within the time required in Section 3.08.140. If a petition for redetermination and refund is not filed within the time required, the determination is final on the expiration of the allowable time.

C. If a petition for redetermination and refund is filed within the allowable period, the tax administrator shall set the time and place of the hearing before the common council of the city of Port Orford at the next regularly scheduled council meeting as prescribed in the council rules and regulations and give the operator notice of the time and place of the hearing. The common council may continue the hearing if necessary.

D. The common council, sitting as a committee as herein above provided, shall have the authority:

1. To approve, modify or disapprove all forms, rules and regulations prescribed by the tax administrator in the administration and enforcement of this chapter;

2. In a review of the tax administrator's determination, the council committee may take such evidence and make such investigation as it may deem necessary;

3. The council committee may change the amount of the determination as a result of the hearing. If an increase is determined, the increase is payable immediately after the hearing.

E. A petition for redetermination is not effective unless the operator has complied with the payment provisions. (Ord. 212-90B § 15, 1990)

3.08.160 Security for collection of taxes.

A. The tax administrator may require an operator to deposit security in the form of cash, bond or other security. The amount of security shall be fixed by the tax administrator and shall not be greater than twice the operator's average quarterly liability for the period for which the operator files returns or five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), whichever amount is less.

B. Within three years after a tax becomes payable or within three years after a determination becomes final, the tax administrator may bring an action in the name of the city in the courts of this state, another state, or the United States to collect the amount delinquent and penalties and interest. (Ord. 212-90B § 16, 1990)

3.08.170 Liens.

A. the tax, interest, penalty and filing fees paid to the tax administrator and any advertising costs incurred when the tax becomes delinquent shall be a lien from the date of its recording with the county clerk until the tax is paid. The lien shall be superior to all subsequently recorded liens on all tangible personal property in the operator's hotel. The lien may be foreclosed and the necessary property sold to discharge the lien.

B. Notice of the lien shall be issued by the tax administrator when the operator has defaulted in payment of the tax, interest and penalty. A copy of the notice shall be sent by certified mail to the operator.

C. Personal property subject to the lien may be sold at public auction after ten day's notice published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county.

D. A lien for the tax, interest and penalty shall be released by the tax administrator when the full amount has been paid to the city. The operator or person making the payment shall receive a receipt stating that the full amount of the tax, interest and penalty has been paid, that the lien is released and that the record of the lien is satisfied. (Ord. 212-90B § 17, 1990)

3.08.180 Refunds by city to operator.

When the tax, penalty or interest has been paid more than once or has been erroneously or illegally collected or received by the tax administrator, it may be refunded if a written verified claim stating the specific reason for the claim is filed within three years from the date of payment. The claim shall be submitted on forms provided by the tax administrator. If the claim is approved, the excess amount may be refunded to the operator or it may be credited to an amount payable by the operator and any balance refunded. (Ord. 212-90B § 18, 1990)

3.08.190 Refunds by city to transients.

If the tax has been collected by the operator and deposited with the tax administrator and it is later determined that the tax was erroneously or illegally collected or received by the tax administrator, it may be refunded to the transient if a written verified claim stating the specific reason for the claim is filed with the tax administrator within three years from the date of the payment. (Ord. 212-90B § 19, 1990)

3.08.200 Refunds by operator to transient.

If the tax has been collected by the operator and it is later determined that the transient occupied the hotel for a period exceeding thirty (30) days without interruption, the operator shall refund the tax to the transient. The operator shall account for the collection and refund to the tax administrator. If the operator has remitted the tax prior to the refund or credit to the transient, the operator shall be entitled to a corresponding refund. (Ord. 212-90B § 20, 1990)

3.08.210 Records required of operators.

Every operator shall keep quest records, accounting books and records of room rentals for a period of three years and six months. (Ord. 212-90B § 22, 1990)

3.08.220 Examination of records.

During normal business hours and after notifying the operator, the tax administrator may examine books, papers and accounting records related to room rentals to verify the accuracy of a return or, if no return is made, to determine the amount to be paid. (Ord. 212-90B § 22, 1990)

3.08.230 Confidentiality.

The tax administrator or a person having an administrative or clerical duty under the provisions of this chapter shall not make known in any manner the business affairs, operations or information obtained by an investigation of records and equipment of a person required to file a return or pay a transient occupancy tax or a person visited or examined in the discharge of official duty; or the amount or source of income, profits, losses or expenditures contained in a statement or application; or permit a statement or application, or a copy of either, or a book containing an abstract or particulars to be seen or examined by any person. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent:

A. Disclosure to or examination of records and equipment by city official, employee or agent for collecting taxes for the purpose of administering or enforcing the provision or collecting the taxes imposed by this chapter;

B. Disclosure, after filing a written request, to the taxpayer, receivers, trustees, executors, administrators, assignees and guarantors, if directly interested, of information concerning tax paid, unpaid tax, amount of tax required to be collected, or interest and penalties. However, the City Attorney shall approve each disclosure referred to in this subsection when, in the tax administrator's opinion, the public interest would suffer;

C. Disclosure of names and addresses of persons making returns;

D. Disclosure of general statistics regarding taxes collected or business done in the City. (Ord. 212-90B § 23, 1990)

3.08.240 Disposition and Use of Transient Room Tax Funds

(1) The funds collected under this ordinance shall be retained by the City and allocated to the Parks Fund. The City Council may appropriate a portion of the funds collected under this ordinance through TLT Grants for City Area tourism development and City Area beautification; which may be to contract for a seasonal parks worker or can be used for tourism related facilities as provided by this ordinance and those grants shall be allocated by the TLT Expenditure Committee with Council approval. (Ord. 2000-04 § 1, 2000), (Ord. 2009-07 § 240, 2008), (Ord. 2012-01 § 240, 2011), (2013-01 § 240, 2012).

(2) One of the seven percent (one seventh of the total) Transient Room tax funds collected must be used for tourism promotion through the Port Orford & North Curry County Chamber of Commerce which is designated as the Tourism Promotion Agency for the City of Port Orford in accordance with Resolution 2013-08 and State Law, and shall not be allocated by the TLT Expenditure Committee but by City Council Approval. (2013-01 § 240, 2012)

(3) Port Orford and North Curry County Chamber of Commerce as the designated Tourism Promotion Agency for the City of Port Orford must provide to the City a quarterly report which consists of copies of invoices, checks, and when possible copies of the ads run for which the money was spent. Tourism Promotion is defined as advertising, promoting the City of Port Orford at least two hours away or 100 plus miles from Port Orford. Receipt of future funds is contingent upon receiving these documents. These reports will be provided to the City Council in their packet for approval. (Ord. 2016-04 § 240 2014)

3.08.250 Transient lodging tax expenditure committee.

(1) A transient lodging tax expenditure committee may be appointed by the Mayor, with Council approval, to advise the council on the expenditure of any transient room tax funds appropriated by the Council for City Area tourism development, beautification and tourism promotion. The committee shall be composed of five members of the City, excluding members of the City Council and City employees. (Ord. 2000-04 § 2, 2000) (Ord. 2012-01 § 250, 2011) (2013-01 § 250, 2012).

(2) The members of this committee shall not receive compensation for their services on the committee.

(3) The term of office shall be for four (4) years. No member shall be appointed to more than three consecutive terms without first taking a one-year break in service. After such break in service the members shall be eligible to be reappointment for up to three (3) additional four (4) year terms before another one-term break in service. (Ord. 2012-01 § 250, 2011)

(4) No member shall vote on a funding petition of any organization of which said member is a current member.

(5) Should any member resign or be removed from office as herein provided, the Mayor, with Council approval, shall appoint a replacement member to fill the unexpired term of the replaced or resigned member.

(6) Any member of this committee may be removed from this committee for cause upon written recommendation by the Common Council.

(7) A quorum of three members shall be necessary to conduct the business of this committee.

(8) This committee shall select from its members a Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and a Secretary who shall serve at the pleasure of this committee.

(9) This committee shall keep a record of its meetings and proceedings and shall keep all minutes, records and files of this committee in the Tax Administrator's office. (Ord. 96-16 § 7, 1996; Ord. 212-90B § 25, 1990)

3.08.255 Grant funding procedures

(A) Any recognized nonprofit organization and any business or commercial property in the City Limits may file an application for grants of transient room tax funds. The application shall state the name of the organization or business to be funded, the amount of funds requested, a description of the project to be funded, a statement of the public purpose furthered by the project, the source of matching funds, or matching cash in the case of a business and such other information as may be required by the City. A business or commercial property may not use labor or donated services as a match, but must match the grant with cash, only.

(B) All organizations, businesses or commercial property receiving funding under this section shall provide quarterly financial reports, which includes a detailed report of the expenditure of funds received from the City, and sufficient supporting documents to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the City Council that the funds were expended pursuant to the terms of the grant. A business or commercial property must show expenditure of cash to match the grant funds; no in-kind is allowed for a business or commercial property. Reports of uncompleted projects shall be made no later than June 30 of the fiscal year.

(C) Any grant funds that are not utilized by an approved grant application shall revert to the City of Port Orford TLT Grant budget line-to be used by the TLT Committee for re-assignment, either to increase an existing grant, or to be added to the grant funds available the following year, with the approval of the City Council

(D) The Transient Lodging Tax Expenditure Committee shall provide reports to the Finance Department detailing status of all grants, and unexpended funds pursuant to section 3.08.255 subsection (B) of this code. If reports are not received in a timely manner, unexpended funds revert to the City of Port Orford TLT Grant budget line.

(E) In order to increase awareness and attendance among visitors, all grant applications that seek to fund an event shall promote it outside Port Orford at least 60 days before the event. A media sheet listing free sources of listings and announcements will be provided at the time the grant is awarded. Documentation of these efforts will be required in the final report. If no free sources are available this requirement may be waived.

(F) The Port Orford & North Curry County Chamber of Commerce, as the dedicated Tourism Promotion Agency for the City of Port Orford (pursuant to Resolution 2013-08 and Section 3.08.240 subsection 2 of this code) shall provide quarterly reports to the Finance Department detailing Tourism Promotion. (2013-01 § 240, 2012).
